FACTS & FIGURES

Some 11,297 athletes from 172 countries have competed in the IAAF World Cross Country Championships, with athletes from four countries participating in all 41 editions: France, Great Britain & NI (ENG, GBR, NIR, SCO, WAL), Spain, and the United States. On page 12 is a list of the 53 IAAF members who have never competed in the championships in 1973-2015.

The largest edition of the championships was in Vilamoura (POR) in 2000, when 806 athletes (excluding seven declared non-starters) from 76 countries took part. That athlete total may never be beaten now that the format of the championships has reverted from six to four main races. The biggest single race was the 1986 senior men's race with 337 competitors from 50 countries, 39 of which produced scoring teams. The race with the most different countries represented was the 1997 men's race with 58, 27 of which had scoring teams.

The most medals won by a country is 304 by Kenya, followed by 255 by Ethiopia and 63 by the United States.

The most medals won by an individual athlete is 27 by Kenenisa Bekele (ETH), with 16 golds, nine silvers and two bronzes in 2001-2008. The women's record is 21 by Worknesh Kidane (ETH) in 1997-2010, including 11 golds, six silvers and four bronzes. The most individual medals is 13 by Bekele and eight by Kidane and Tirunesh Dibaba (ETH), who won five golds and three silvers in 2002-2008.

The most golds won by an individual is 16 by Bekele – including 12 individual and four team medals. The most women's golds is 14 by T. Dibaba, five of which were individual and nine with teams.

The most individual gold medals won is 12 by Bekele, under-20 winner in 2001 and long/short course winner in 2002-2006 and winner in 2008. The most by a woman is five by Grete Waitz (NOR), who won the women's title in 1978-1981 & 1983 and T. Dibaba who was under-20 champion in 2003, short course winner in 2005 & long course winner in 2005, 2006 & 2008.

The most medals won at a single championships is four: two individual and two team. This has been achieved 13 times by seven athletes, all Ethiopian. Haylu Mekonnen in 1999, Gete Wami in 2001, Kenenisa Bekele in 2001-2006, Worknesh Kidane in 2003/2005, Gebre-egziabher Gebremariam in 2004, Tirunesh Dibaba in 2005 and Meselech Melkamu in 2006.

The most medals won as an under-20 is eight, including three golds, by Vivian Cheruiyot (KEN) in 1998-2001. The most by an under-20 man is seven, by Boniface Kiprop (UGA) in 2000-2004.

The most team gold medals won is 82 by Kenya, with at least one every year since 1986 followed by Ethiopia 45. The most team medals is 125 by Ethiopia compared with 123 by Kenya.

The longest winning streak in the championships are the 18 successive titles won by Kenya's men's team in the long race (1986-2003).

The oldest champion and medallist is Jack Foster (NZL), team gold medallist in 1975 at 42 years 297 days. The oldest individual champion and medallist is Portugal's Carlos Lopes, who in 1985 won the third of his World Cross Country titles at 38 years 34 days. The oldest women's champion is Edith Masai (KEN), who won the 2004 short course race at 36 years 352 days.

Foster went on to become the oldest ever competitor in 1979, aged 46 years 306 days. The oldest female participant is Sweden's Ewy Palm 45 years 50 days in 1987

The youngest gold medallists are all Kenyans, with the youngest of all Elizabeth Cheptanui, under-20 team gold medallist in 1994 at 13 years 197 days. The youngest individual winner is Lydia Cheromei, 1991 champion at 13 years 317 days. The youngest under-20 male winner is Ismael Kirui, under-20 team gold medallist in 1990 at 15 years 32 days. Individually, the youngest is Robert Kipchumba, 2000 World Under-20 Cross Country Champion at 16 years 24 days.

The youngest competitor is Su Su-Ning of Chinese Taipei who was 12 years 130 days when she placed 119th in the 1991 under-20 race. The youngest male is Junior Hines (CAY) who was 13 years 58 days when he also placed 119th, this time in the under-20 race of 2002. Current IAAF regulations prevent anyone younger than 16 in the year of competition from competing in the championships.

Sweeps of all four individual titles were achieved by Kenya in 1994 & 2010 and Ethiopia 2008, but never in the years where there were three or six races.

Sweeps of all available team titles were achieved by Kenya in 1991, 1993, 1995, 1996 and 2010. In all those years, the Kenyans won team gold in the senior and under-20 races, men and women. In 2010, Kenya also won all four individual titles. In the six-race format, Ethiopia won five of six titles in 2004.

Individual medal sweeps have been achieved 16 times, only by Kenya or Ethiopia. These were: Senior men long in 1988 & 1993 (both KEN) & 2004 (ETH); Under-20 men 1993, 2000, 2005, 2007 & 2010 (all KEN); Under-20 women: 1993, 1994, 2000, 2006, 2007 & 2010 (all KEN) and 2004 & 2015 (both ETH). There have been no medal sweeps in any senior women's race.

Perfect team scores have been achieved in 11 races, the men's short course races of 1998 and 2000, the under-20 men's races of 1993, 2000, 2005, 2007 and 2010, and the under-20 women's race in 1993, 2004, 2006 & 2010. On each occasion apart from 2004 (with four to score) Kenyan runners placed first, second, third and fourth to gain a score of 10 points. In 2004 the dominant country was Ethiopia.

The best example of domination in the senior (long) races was in 1988 when (with six to score) Kenyans placed 1-2-3-4-6-7-8-9. For the women, the Kenyan teams of both 2009 & 2010 scored a record low of 14. The highest ever score is 1874 by the Maltese men's team which placed 39th in the 1986 men's race.

The most championships contested is 18 by Domingos Castro (POR) who competed in men's races between 1982 and 2003. The women's record in 17 by Conceição Ferreira (POR) in 1982-2000. Co-incidentally, both athletes placed seventh in the 1990 championship at Aix-les-Bains. That remained Castro's best finishing position, but Ferreira went on to win an individual bronze in 1994.

The largest winning margin in the history of the championships came in 1980 in Paris when Grete Waitz finished 44 seconds ahead of the runner-up, Irina Bondarchuk of the USSR. The best by a man was 33 seconds by Kenenisa Bekele in the 2001 under-20 men's race. John Ngugi (KEN) won the 1989 senior men's race by 28 seconds, while the biggest winning margin in the under-20 women's race was 27 seconds by Gelete Burka (ETH) in 2005.

The closest finish was in the 1973 men's race when Pekka Päiväranta (FIN) finished just one tenth ahead of Mariano Haro (ESP), 35:46.4 to 35:46.5. The result of that race was recorded in tenths of a second, but in three later races the first three all shared the same time to the nearest second; the 1983 men's, the 2000 women's short course and the under-20 women's in 2001.

Successful twins have included Grenville & Graham Tuck (ENG), Dionisio & Domingos Castro (POR), Ann Ford & Paula Fudge (Née Yeoman, ENG) and Angela & Susan Tooby (GBR). The Tucks won a total of five team medals including two golds. Domingos Castro competed in 18 championships and won three team medals. Ford and Fudge won six team medals and placed 13th & 14th respectively in 1982, with Ann having finished fourth in 1974 & 1976. The Toobys each won team silvers in the 1988 women's race, where individually, Angela placed second and Susan 16th.

Kenya and Ethiopia are far and away the most successful countries in the history of the championships, winning 127 of the 166 available team titles. The two countries have met 128 times where both have fielded full teams, with Kenya beating Ethiopia 82-45.

These totals have been revised to include a number of previously unreported non-finishers. Similarly athletes who may have appeared on results as non-starters have now been excluded from totals. In 1998-2003, it was possible for under-20s to start in both under-20 and senior races, so the sum of the rightmost four columns will give a total greater than the number of actual athletes competing in those years. From 2004, the IAAF ruled that under-20 athletes may compete in one race only, which was also the case up to 1997 (and from 2007) when all races were staged on one day. At the 2009 IAAF Congress, it was proposed that the championships should be held every two years, alternating with area championships. This was approved by 132 votes to 32. In 2015 it was announced that the senior race distances were to be standardised at approximately 10Km for both men and women, while in August 2016, the IAAF Council decided on the introduction of a mixed relay race composed of two men and two women per team running one loop of the course in any order.
